

Future Indefinite Tense

Affirmative sentences

This is the simple form of this tense in which simple form of verb is used and will or shall is used as helping verb. The formation of affirmative sentences for this tense are described above and below.

Formation

Subject + will/shall + first form of verb + object.

Examples:

- Parents will guide their children.
- Lee shall drive the car.
- I shall drive the buss.
- Student will ring the bell.

Future Indefinite Tense

Negative sentences

In these sentences not is used after the helping verb. It becomes will not and shall not. Other structure remains the same.

Formation

Subject + will/shall + Not + first form of verb + object.

Examples:

- Parents will not guide their children.
- Lee shall not drive the car.
- I shall not drive the buss.
- Student will not ring the bell.
- Adam will not go for morning walk.

Future Indefinite Tense

Interrogative sentences:

In the formation of the interrogative sentences of the future indefinite tense helping verb is placed at the start of sentence to make it interrogative.

Formation

Helping verb (will/shall) + subject + 1st form of verb + object?

Examples:

- 1) Will she help us?
- 2) Shall we pass the test?
- 3) Shall we pass the entry test?
- 4) Will the teacher resign?
- 5) Will ali and ahmad do their work?

