

Future Perfect Tense

Affirmative sentences

In this case third form of verb is used along with the will/shall have as the helping verbs.

Formation

Subject + will have/ shall have + past participle + object.

Examples:

- 1) She will have played hockey.
- 2) Lee will have played match.
- 3) The train will have reached.
- 4) The driver will have reached.
- 5) Aisha shall have finished her work.

Future Perfect Tense

Negative sentences

In the negative sentences “not” is added between “will” and “have”.

Form

Subject+ will not have/ shall not have+ past participle+ object.

Examples:

- 1) Adam will not have committed this mistake.
- 2) They will not have gone to market.
- 3) They will not have gone to the picnic party.
- 4) Children will not have played the match.
- 5) Students will not have played the tennis match.

Future Perfect Tense

Interrogative sentences:

For making interrogative sentences of this tense “will/ shall” is placed before the subject. And after subject the “have” is placed.

Formation

Will/shall + subject + have + past participle + object?

Examples:

- 1) Shall I have reached Islamabad?
- 2) Will Ahmad have reached USA?
- 3) Will the waiter have rung the bell?
- 4) Shall we have worked hard?
- 5) Will the girl have completed the Holy Quran?

