

Past indefinite Tense

Affirmative sentences

Form of verb

2nd form of verb is used in the positive /affirmative sentences of this tense.

Formation

Subject+ 2nd form of verb +object

Examples

- I wrote a novel.
- He ate an orange.
- Suni watched an interesting movie.
- They played hockey match.
- He threw a football.

Past indefinite Tense

Negative sentences

While making negative sentences “did” is used as a helping verb and after “did” first form of verb is used. Not is added between helping verb and main verb.

Formation

Subject+ did+ not+ 1st form of verb + object

Examples

- I did not drink water.
- We did not ask question.
- He did not play football.
- He did not go to park.
- They did not accept our invitation.

Past indefinite Tense

Interrogative sentences

For interrogative sentences “did” is placed at start of sentences. After subject first form of verb is used and question mark is added at the end.

Formation

Did+ subject + 1st form of verb + object?

Examples

- Did they exercise regularly?
- Did Annu buy a pen?
- Did sparrow fly in air?
- Did she tell a lie?
- Did we help you?
- We jumped off the 2nd floor.

