

Phrasal verbs

Bear

Bear away:

to win, to carry off as a conqueror.

He bore away the first prize in the essay competition.

He bore off the first prize in the debate.

Bear out

to confirm.

Your story bears out my truth.

Bear up:

You should bear up the hardships of life bravely.

Bear with

I could not bear with this angry mood. (V.Imp)

Bear upon:

Pertaining to

History does not bear upon the matter under discussion.

Phrasal verbs

Bear

Bear on:

refer to

The fact does not bear on the matter under discussion.

Bear up against:

to resist, to endure

He bore up against all his hardships with a smile on his face.

Wear down:

to crush by force

He bore down his enemy with a heavy hand.

Bear down upon:

attack of a warship on the ship of an enemy

The American battleship bore down upon the other warship and gave it a crushing defeat.

O Bear to:

I cannot bear to see my son going to school without books.