

Phrasal verbs Break

Break away:

to free oneself from restraint

He held the horse by the bridle but it broke away.

Break down:

His health has broken down due to hard work.

The car broke down on the way.

Break off:

to stop suddenly

He broke off in the middle of his speech.

Break in:

to tame

He broke in the wild lion in no time.

Break into:

to enter forcibly

The thieves broke into his house last night.

Break forth:

to come out suddenly

The sun broke forth from the clouds.

Phrasal verbs Break

Break through:

to enter forcibly

The robbers broke through the wall of the house.

break up:

(to come to an end )

The meeting broke up in a great confusion.

(to disintegrate )

Divorce breaks up a lot of families.

Break with:

to cease to be friendly with (ii) to quarrel with a person

He broke with his sincere friend without any reason.

Break open:

to open with force.

The thief broke open the window of my house last night.

Break out:

to spread

Cholera has broken out in the city now-a-days.

Break at:

to make better record.

He broke at his previous record in cricket.