

Present Perfect Tense

Affirmative sentences

In case of the affirmative sentences of the present perfect tense the third form of verb is used along with has and have as the helping verb.

Formation

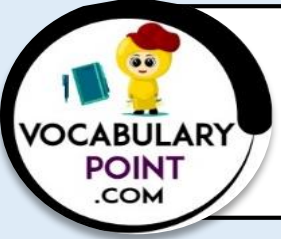

Subject+ helping verb (has/have) + 3rd form of verb+ object

Examples

Some examples of the present perfect tense are given below:

- Areej has taken tea.
- They have passed the paper.
- Child has run fast.
- She have done her work

Present Perfect Tense

Negative sentences

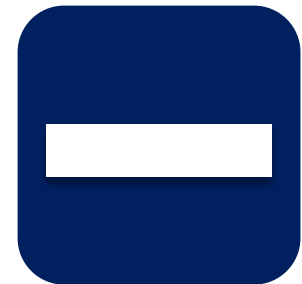

In the formation of the negative sentences “not” is added between helping verb and main verb.

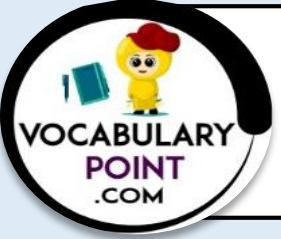

Formation

Sub + helping verb (has, have) + not + 3rd form of verb + object

Example:

- I have not sewed my dress.
- Areej has not taken tea.
- You have not drunk water.
- She has not done her job.
- Rimshi has not written a book.

Present Perfect Tense

Interrogative sentences

In the formation of the interrogative sentences, has/have is placed before the subject and question mark (?) is put at the end.

Formation

Helping verb (has/have) + subject+ 3rd form of verb + object?

Examples

- Has Areej taken tea?
- Has she washed the room?
- Have they asked you?
- Has Ayesha washed her clothes?
- Have I eaten food?

